MASTER SERGEANT CHRISTOPHER D. DODD
Section Chief, Aerospace Ground Equipment

Chapter 1260

Master Sergeant Christopher D. Dodd is the Section Chief, Aerospace Ground Equipment (AGE) assigned to the 56th Equipment Maintenance Squadron, 56th Maintenance Group, 56th Fighter Wing, Luke Air Force Base, Arizona. His primary duty is to direct Air Educational and Training Command largest Aerospace Ground Equipment flight comprised of 134 Airmen, five Air Force Reserve Technicians and eleven federal service employees in sustaining maintenance operations for 59 F-35 Joint Strike Fighters and 78 Legacy F-16C/D aircraft valued at $9,004,000,000. He controls the maintenance of a robust 695 support equipment fleet valued over $51,600,000 and a $176,000 consolidated tool kit account which supports nine allied countries and seven aircraft maintenance units that aligns with the 56th Fighter Wing's mission to provide safe and reliable support equipment to train the greatest F-35 and F-16 pilots of the world. His leadership is pivotal to developing and implementing personnel management policies, advising senior leaders of equipment production and ultimately report directly to Air Education and Training Command functional managers to balance manning, training and equipment requirements.

Master Sergeant Dodd is a native of Kinston, North Carolina where he graduated high school in 1991. July of 1997 he entered the United States Air Force as an Aerospace Ground Equipment Apprentice. After completing his technical school at Sheppard Air Force Base, he was assigned to Grand Forks Air Force Base. While stationed at Grand Forks Air Force Base, he deployed six times in support of Operation ENDURING FREEDOM and IRAQI FREEDOM. His most prestigious assignment was Osan Air Base, Republic of Korea in support of the 5th Reconnaissance Squadron as a Staff Sergeant held the duty title of Aerospace Ground Equipment flight Noncommissioned Officer In-Charge. He commanded the work center in completing the executive orders of Combat Commanders and the President of the United States to support critical intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance missions.

Prior to his current position, he served as a 56th Maintenance Group, Quality Assurance technician and other key leadership roles that earned him the distinctive accomplishments of the 56th Maintenance Group Noncommissioned Officer for the Year and Lieutenant General Leo Marquez. He is dedicated to his local communities and his main passion is with Deer Valley Arizona High School Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps where he serves as a mentor. He is also a member of Unified Arizona Veterans Association which is comprised of 43 local veteran associations and their aims is to ensure all Arizona veterans are fraternally united and informed of their benefits.
